Music for Celebration

Jane, Emily and Leo devote care and attention towards creating beautiful music for your special occasion. Our work encompasses intimate marriage ceremonies to global commercial projects and we are pleased to tailor the musical ambience to best reflect your personal requirements.

Our expertise extends beyond performance degrees from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and orchestral experience with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra, Australian Opera and Ballet Orchestra, Sydney Philharmonia Orchestra and Sydney Opera House Baby's Proms Orchestra. It is drawn from sustained success and longevity at the forefront of fine string music in Australia. We hope that you enjoy our showreel of commercial accomplishments.

We are pictured as a string trio, however we often play as a string quartet by adding a colleague on viola.

We look forward to collaborating with you!

Experience and Qualifications

Jane has played with the Sydney Symphony Orchestra and the Australian Opera and Ballet Orchestra and is the Associate Principal second violin of the Metropolitan Orchestra. She has performed with John Farnham, Harry Connick Junior, Delta Goodrem, Olivia Newton-John, Delta Goodrem, Andrea Bocelli, Lior, Michael Bolton, Human Nature, Susan Boyle, Sarah Blasko, Il Divo, Cyndi Lauper and Liza Manelli. She regularly appears in TV productions including The X Factor, The Today Show, The Voice and Sunrise. She has toured Australia and overseas with the internationally acclaimed electric violin trio 'String Diva'. She graduated from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music with a Bachelor of Music (Honours) degree in performance. During her studies she was awarded multiple academic and performance scholarships and was appointed concertmaster of the Australian Youth Orchestra touring with Slava Grigoryan.

Leo has played with the Sydney Opera House Baby's Proms Orchestra, the Sydney Philharmonia Orchestra, the Metropolitan Orchestra, the Phantom of the Opera Lyric Orchestra as principal viola and the Köln Philharmonie Orchestra as principal viola. He has performed as a chamber musician at the ARIAS three times, collaborating with Lior, Angus and Julia Stone and Boy and Bear. He has toured nationally with Missy Higgins, Lior, Angus and Julia Stone and Jane Rutter. He graduated from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music with a Bachelor of Music in Performance.

Emily plays with the Metropolitan Orchestra and has performed with John Farnham, Harry Connick Junior, Sarah Blasko, Human Nature, Tina Arena, Lior, James Morrison, Il Divo, Susan Boyle, Michael Bolton, Kylie Minogue, David Helfgott, Michael Buble and Marina Prior. She regularly appears in TV productions including The X Factor, The Today Show, The Voice and Sunrise. She has toured Japan as a solo cellist and Singapore with electric string trio 'Maske'. She has performed on the 'Bravo Cruise of the Performing Arts' to Noumea and with a Piano Trio to New Zealand. She graduated with distinction from the ANU with a Bachelor of Music Performance and from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music with a Postgraduate Diploma in Performance.

We often play as a String Quartet by adding a colleague on viola. Information on the two ensemble types is provided on our contact us page.

Weddings

A wedding is an occasion of deep spiritual significance, and the purity of emotions involved are artfully complemented by refined classical music. We support marriage equality and welcome clients of all orientations.

Jane, Emily and Leo's longstanding experience not only furnishes us with performance élan, but with discretionary qualities of timing and subtlety that are especially vital within the delicate dynamic of a service.

Mostly, clients leave music selection to our discretion. However if you have requests or are unsure about appropriate music for your ceremony, then let us take your hand and together we will prepare music that best reflects your personal commitment in a meaningful way.

Following the ceremony, live string music at receptions is a more classic approach to entertainment than a band or DJ. Elegant string renditions of jazz and pop standards nourish guests' conviviality and provide a congenial ambience for conversation and consumption without duress or distraction.

Wedding Layout

A Protestant or Civil service usually equates to a booking of one hour and presents five musical opportunities; Guests Arrive, Processional, Signing of the Register, Recessional, and Guests Leave.

A Catholic or Orthodox service usually equates to a booking of one and a quarter hours and presents seven musical opportunities; Guests Arrive, Processional, Offertory, Communion, Signing of the Register, Recessional, and Guests Leave.

The prudent bride or groom will consider booking us for an extra 15 minutes in case the service runs overtime.

These booking times cover the service nicely by providing music for about fifteen minutes pre-ceremony and five minutes post-ceremony. Our booking time should start 15 minutes before the processional starts. For example, if the processional starts at 2pm then we should be booked from 1:45 - 2:45pm.

Below is a selection of appropriate pieces listed in general descending order of popularity, this is not a reflection of each pieces' musical merit but is simply a matter of tradition or taste.

Processional

Canon, J. Pachelbel
Bridal March from Lohengrin, R. Wagner
Flower Duet from Lakme, L. Delibes
Trumpet Voluntary, J. Clarke
Gabriel's Oboe, E. Morricone

Signing

Air from orchestral suite in D Major, J.S. Bach
Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring, J.S. Bach
Ave Maria, F. Schubert
Panis Angelicus, C. Franck
Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana, P. Mascagni

Recessional

Wedding March, F. Mendelssohn
Hornpipe from Water Music, G. Handel
Rejouissance from Royal Fireworks Music, G. Handel
Arrival of the Queen of Sheba, G. Handel
Trumpet Voluntary, J. Clarke
Ode to Joy from Symphony no 9, L. Beethoven

The duration of each piece is not a concern when planning your service. Most pieces are from three to five minutes long and thus fit well within each section. Also most classical music contains repeats or recurring phrases which sound excellent if attenuated at a cadence point. For example Pachelbel's Canon is based on a cyclical baseline which means we will always time your Processional to perfection! There is no input needed from you on the day. We take our cues directly or by liaising with the Priest or Celebrant prior to the ceremony.

Just let us know at the time of booking. If the requests are not from our repertoire list, we will do our best to source them for you. Ensemble Types

The Musical Roles of each instrument in a String Quartet with their Pop counterparts.

Most Music is composed using three or four note chords so one instrument per harmonic note is ideal.

Violin 1 - main melody (vocals)

Violin 2 - secondary melody and harmony (lead guitar)

Viola - occasional melody and harmony (rhythm guitar)

Cello - melodic bassline (bass guitar)

String Quartet - Violin 1, Violin 2, Viola, Cello

A quartet is the preferred choice musically. Most music is written with a quartet in mind so renditions sound rich and balanced. A quartet can play louder than a trio. Also a quartet is arranged in a half circle fashion so is appealing visually.

String Trio - Violin 1, Violin 2, Cello

We are pictured as a trio on our website. A trio is a quartet without the viola. A viola is like a big violin and mainly adds harmonic richness and depth to the sound, the important melodic parts are carried on the violins. Hence for many pieces a viola can be absent without too much appreciable difference in sound quality (don't tell that to viola players though!). A trio uses less space than a quartet but cannot play as loud.

String Duo - Violin 1, Cello

A duo is a melody over a bassline. Because most music is composed using three or four note chords, duo misses the third harmonic tone which contributes colour. Duos are a subtler approach suited to smaller functions.

Solo Violin or Solo Cello

Solo violin or solo cello is melody only. Solo strings have romantic appeal. Quotes for these are on request.

Booking Process

Jane, Emily and Leo will handle all correspondence in regards to your event, however we may substitute colleagues of equal experience and merit if we become unable to play on the day.

Payment

After initial correspondence, a deposit confirms your booking with us. This is included in the prices above and is not an additional cost. Upon deposit receipt we will email you a booking confirmation form. In lieu of a deposit and then a later performance payment, you may also pay the whole fee upfront. We do not accept cheques due to lack of traceability on our bank statements. We accept payment in the following ways;

Private clients - the deposit must be paid via EFT. The remaining performance fee may be paid via EFT prior to the performance or cash on the day.

Corporate clients - the deposit must be paid via EFT. The remaining performance fee may be paid via EFT prior to the performance. An invoice with an ABN will be supplied. We do not charge GST.

Overtime

Please err on the side of caution and book us for longer initially if you are unsure about booking times or think that your event may run late. For overtime there is no guarantee that the musicians will be able to stay longer than the agreed booking time. Although practically, usually this is possible for at least some if not all of the musicians.

There is no penalty rate for overtime, we charge our normal prices in fifteen minute increments as outlined on our bookings page. Also, we will not disturb you on the day but email you post-event to request transfer of funds.

Time in-lieu

May occur between a wedding ceremony and reception. A fee for this will be quoted at the time of booking.

Cancellation

If your event is postponed or cancelled due to COVID restrictions, any payments we receive are fully refunded, even at short notice. For non-COVID cancellations, we fully refund payments up to one week prior to the performance.

Locations

We take bookings within the Greater Sydney Area; including the Blue Mountains, Hunter Valley, and Southern Highlands. Travel fees may apply if far from Sydney Metro. We will advise you upon enquiry.

Performance Information

Arrival Time;

We will arrive twenty minutes prior to each booking in time to arrange seating and to prepare for performance.

Dress Code;

Either smart black attire (men & women) or dinner suit (men) and evening dresses (women). Alternative dress is available on request.

Breaks;

A ten minute break per hour on the hour is standard for bookings in excess of 1 hour. (this is flexible so may be coordinated with speeches etc)

Your input on the day

- One armless chair per musician (three for trio, four for quartet)
- Adequate lighting at venues so that we can read the music
- We appreciate being fed for bookings in excess of 3 hours over the lunch or dinner period, however this remains at your discretion.
- Amplification - usually not required for most events. However if the pax is very large or venue noisy, you may need to provide a PA and technician.
- An appropriate wet weather plan in place - both direct sunlight and moisture destroy the varnish on our precious instruments.
- For sun, usually we can position ourselves in the shade somewhere close by or improvise some other suitable seating arrangement. If the venue has no shade at all then you must advise us at the time of booking. We will use our experience to advise you in this regard. We may or may not be able to play in direct sunlight depending on the time of day and location. If, without prior consultation as specified hereto, we are exposed to direct sunlight in such a way that in our opinion it is detrimental to our instruments, then we may at our discretion not play. There is no refund available for our non-playing if this eventuates.
- For rain, having a wet weather plan at a covered location is highly advisable. Usually a location decision is made either the night before or on the morning of the event and we are then immediately informed via mobile telephone. However, if you choose to go ahead outdoors with no suitable cover and it begins to even lightly "spit" then we cannot play. Being under a tree or having guests hold umbrellas over us is not sufficient as flecks of water always float in sideways! There is no refund available for our non-playing if this eventuates. Another option is to hire a light pop up marquee, that way we and the couple can be covered if it spits, whilst the guests hold umbrellas. Your wet weather plan must be at the same booking time as the fine weather plan, otherwise a longer booking time or even two separate bookings may be required to cover each eventuality. We cannot hold two different booking times and then void one on the day.

Disclaimer

- Accent Strings strive for a perfect outcome for your event. On the rare likelihood that you are unsatisfied with our musical services then a partial or whole refund may be negotiated fairly post event. In all cases our maximum legal liability for any claim is limited entirely to the cost of the booking, you release us from any further liability.
- Sending us a deposit means that you have both read and accepted the booking conditions, including the legal liability disclaimer and wish to proceed with a booking.
